Project Stagelight
Playwriting Contest Rules

12/31/03

- Entries must be postmarked by October 1, 2004 (firm deadline)
- Open to writers 18 years old and older
- Play must be unpublished and never produced, but may have been seen in a staged reading
- A cover page with title, author's name, address, telephone and email must be on the first page of entry. The author's name should not appear elsewhere.
- A one-page summary of the play must accompany each entry
- Play must be submitted in correct play format (see Dramatists Source Book) available at libraries or book stores
- Entry may not exceed 15 pages, typed (in addition to cover page and abstract)
- Entries may be from the opening act, or any subsequent act of the play, but must be 15 pages or fewer
- Entries are limited to one submission per playwright
- Entry fee: $15 non-TWA members, $10 TWA members
- Awards: Entries will be judged by theater professionals. Project Stagelight finalists will be invited to develop, or refine their works into full-length plays. Selected plays will be performed as a staged reading in "An Evening of New Works," at Tallahassee Little Theatre or, chosen to be presented in Readers' Theatre format the following year, at the Tallahassee Little Theatre.
- Send ONE COPY of play, cover page and one-page summary to: TWA Project Stagelight Contest, P.O. Box 38328, Tallahassee, FL 32315
